Important to Stockmen.

Sanford, Fla., Mar. 29th, 1905.
Ackerman & Stewart,
Palatka, Fla.,
Gentlemen:

Two weeks ago I purchased from my druggist here a package of Tilden's Condition Powder, and wrote to say that it saved a pet heifer for me. She was almost beyond aid. "Salt Slick," I suppose, judging from the symptoms. As she is fine Jersey stock I now value her at $20.00, and consider the investment of 25 cts. for your Powder the best bargain I ever made. Respectfully yours,
Geo. C. McDougal.

Bright Boy Drowned.

News reached this city Wednesday morning of the death of Willie Tingley of San Mateo, by drowning. This bright lad, who is well remembered in Palatka, and who was the second and youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Tingley, of San Mateo, was formerly a pupil in the Palatka schools.

Lately he had been attending the preparatory school of Stetson University, Deland, and it was in Lindley lake near that place that he met his death by drowning last Tuesday afternoon.

Several of the college boys were in bathing. Tingley suddenly threw up his hands and called for help. Before any of the boys could reach him he sank and did not again come to the surface. It was sometime before his body could be recovered. It is believed that young Tingley was attacked by cramps and was helpless. The body was shipped home on Wednesday morning and the funeral was held yesterday.

Willie Tingley was about 15 years of age. While attending school in Palatka he was a favorite with a large circle of his school mates and they, as well as all friends of the family in this city and county offer sincerest sympathy to the bereaved parents and brother.

Circuit Court Jurors.

The following names were drawn last Friday to serve as jurors at the spring term of the Circuit Court, which convenes Tuesday, April 11, at 9 o'clock: W. C. Bundy, Allen Price, Reuben Neck, R. Strickland, E. A. Hogarth, J. D. Johns, A. D. Curry, N. J. Hancock, Will Price, H. Crook, John Abraham, Starling Padgett, C. Hammon, T. J. Strickland, N. Solano, Jr., A. L. Leyvaz, J. W. Conway, L. J. Arnold, J. W. Hewitt, H. F. Johnson, W. P. Allen, W. L. Perry, J. A. Turner, H. W. Motes, J. A. McCaskill, J. C. Osteen, M. Driggers, L. W. Nagle, G. W. Beck, A. D. Groover.

AN ORDINANCE

Prescribing the Time for Making Gas, Water and Sewer Connections, Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of the City of Palatka:

SECTION 1. Each and every person, company or corporation who owns real estate in the City of Palatka, fronting or abutting upon any street through which a public sewer may be constructed by authority of the City of Palatka, shall make all requisite connections with such public sewer while same may be open and accessible, at the edge of the street, or to the sidewalk along such street; which said connections shall be made as soon as such sewer shall have been built or extended to or opposite the property of such person, company or corporation.

Such connection shall extend from such sewer to the curb at the edge of the street, or to the sidewalk along such street; which said connections and extensions, as aforesaid, shall be constructed of such material and in such manner as may be authorized by the street committee or civil engineer of the city.

SECTION 2. Any person or persons who fail to make such connection or extensions, as aforesaid, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the municipal judge.

SECTION 3. Whenever provision shall be made by ordinance for the paying or repairing of any street or part of street, the owners of property abutting on such designated street or part of street, or any other person, company or corporation who may have the right and whose duty it may be, shall make all requisite connections with the gas and water mains in front of their respective premises, within thirty days after the publication of the ordinance so requiring such street or part of street, to be paved or repaired.

SECTION 4. After any pavement shall have been laid, under the provision of an ordinance heretofore passed, or that may hereafter be passed, no person shall be allowed to dig up or disturb such pavement for the purpose of making any such connections with sewers, gas or water mains, or for any other purpose, provided, however, that in case of accident or any other contingency rendering it necessary to disturb said pavement, any such person, company or corporation may make application to the City Council of the City of Palatka to have the necessary work done and shall deposit with said City Council such sum of money, as in the estimation of the said City Council, shall be deemed sufficient to pay the expense to be incurred; and the City Council may then have the necessary work done, including the relaying of the pavement, at the expense of such applicant.

Any person digging up or disturbing such pavement contrary to the provisions hereof, shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the municipal judge.

SECTION 5. No further notice than the publication of this ordinance shall be deemed necessary to inform all persons affected hereby of the requirements of this ordinance and to charge them with full notice thereof.

Passed in open Council this March 7th, A. D., 1905.
S. J. KENNEDY,
President City Council.
J. N. BLACKWELL,
[Seal] Approved this 8th day of March, A. D. 1905.
M. M. VICKERS,
Mayor.

Children's Medal Contest.

The Palatka Woman's Christian Temperance Union is doing a grand work in behalf of the children of this city. That much was evidenced by the interest manifested by the children in the medal contest at the Opera House last Monday evening. Fully two-thirds of the audience was composed of children. The attendance nearly filled the hall.

The exercises consisted principally of instrumental and vocal music, and recitations by children. The "color scheme" of the entire program was temperance. The stage was decorated beautifully with evergreens and great white ribbons—the latter being the emblem of the union. That the audience appreciated the efforts of the children was demonstrated by the hearty applause which greeted each number, both musical and declamatory.

The following is the program as rendered:

Welcome Song by nine girls.
Recitation—"Jim's Christmas"—Delbert Gupitnick.
Violin Solo—"A Lion Du Ba"—by Johnnie Boy Tighman.
(b) "Melody"—Louis Leach.
Recitation—"An Old Woman's Complaint"—Evelyn Cartmel.
Solo—"Mr. Vickers."
Recitation—"Little Blossom"—Mervin Ray.
Violin Solo—"April Smiles"—Warner Hamon.
Recitation—"Why Ned Said No"—Charles Anderson.
Solo—"Voices of the Woods"—Rubinstein—Mrs. M. W. Stewart.
Recitation—"A Point On Prohibition"—Will Walton.
Solo—"Mr. Vickers."
Recitation—"Who Struck the Blow"—Mildred Pearce.
Solo—"Mrs. M. W. Stewart."
Recitation—"Poorhouse Nan"—Emma Creekman.
Presentation of Medal—Rev. E. J. Gates.

Accompanists—Mrs. W. G. Tighman, Mrs. Hamon and Miss Leah Bond.
Orchestra—Misses Cora Mooney, Fay Mooney, Inez Holden, Elene Merryday, Masters Warner Hamon, Dell Canova, and Arthur Rowlands.
Chorus of Girls—Misses Loretta Bond, Ruth Hanley, Jennie Weller, Nellie Fry, Genevieve Phillips, Emma Creekman, Mervin Ray, Mildred Pearce and Evelyn Cartmel.
Ushers—Misses Susie Walton, Ona Bond, Winifred Haughton and Mary Merrill.

The medal was awarded by a committee composed of Rev. L. R. Lynn and Messrs. Merrill and Kilpatrick to Miss Mervin Ray and honorable mention was given to Miss Evelyn Cartmel. But all the children did well—excellent.

Johnnie Boy Tighman and Louis Leach were heartily applauded and responded to encore. Warner Hamon's violin solo was also received with great applause.

The solos of Mr. Vickers and Mrs. Stewart were the only parts taken by adults, and they, always favorites with Palatka people, received the usual commendatory applause.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. are to be commended for their efforts in behalf of the children. Heretofore there has been but little organized work along the line of temperance education of children in the county. In fact the moral side of the liquor question has been neglected. It is this had not been the case we would not now be hearing such expressions as "prohibition cannot be enforced." Prohibition, like any law made for mankind, will be enforced when its violations are against the decided sentiment of a community.

It is a hopeful sign for the future of the republic that the public schools have generally taken up the study of hygiene and physiology in which a large space is given to the effects of alcoholic beverages on the human system. This work coupled with instruction on the moral side in a manner to interest the children as is now being done by the good ladies of Palatka will result in a generation of total abstainers and they are the sort of people to make and enforce prohibition.

Prohibition is a perfect law. The only trouble with its application is that mankind is imperfect. Moral suasion should always precede—and not follow—legal suasion.

An Exciting Ball Game.

The game of base ball at the park on Wednesday afternoon between the Crescent City and home clubs was one of the most interesting played here in recent years. This is especially true of the last half of the game, when the playing became fast.

The line up of the clubs was as follows:

Crescent City—Miller, ss; C. Norton, c; Wilson, lf; Reed, 2 b and p; Gaultier, cf; Varnes, p and 2 b; Clark, rf; Carrier, 1st b; Chamberlin, 3d b; Palatka—Thomas, 1st b; Merrill; Hayes, 2 b; R. Phillips, 3 b; L. Phillips, cf; Collins, p; Lowe, lf; Devereux, ss; Lawrence (Gable) rf.

The home team made two runs in the first inning and maintained its lead up to the eighth, when the visitors turned the tables and led by one run. This was the status of the game when Crescent City completed its half of the ninth inning. When Palatka went to bat the excitement of the grand stand was intense and the air was rent with screams from the rosters for both sides.

Then Palatka made a score, tying the game; but one man was out and two were on bases. The cry went up "Gable is at the bat!" This boy let two balls pass the plate till one came that suited him. Then he "swiped" it, sending a hot liner near the ground to center, letting in the winning run and ending the game.

The game was good natured throughout, and there were many brilliant plays on both sides. Dan Sanford, as umpire, was called upon to make many close decisions, but his fairness was never questioned. His judgments were quick.

For the visitors Miller, Wilson, Norton, Carrier, Varnes and Reed were most conspicuous for good plays. Varnes pitched two innings and retired in favor of Reed, who was hindered to hit and who pitched much better than in previous games. Collins, who was in the box for Palatka, did not pitch his usual game. He was much easier to locate than formerly. His work, however, was much superior to that of his opponent. Each of the home players distinguished themselves by a brilliant play here and there through the game, but the credit of the winning run is by common consent given to Gable. May his shadow never grow less.

The attendance was good, spectators filling two-thirds of the grand stand. Crescent City sent a large delegation of rosters, principally ladies and young girls, all practiced vocalists. If some of them have sore throats today it should not be surprising. The local contingent of fans and rosters were not vocally deficient. In fact voice culture was everywhere and always apparent on the stand.

Visited The Ball Park.

The launch Satilla brought a large delegation of ladies from Crescent City to see the base ball game on Wednesday afternoon. The ladies were Mesdames Boren, Morse, Jesse-Carl Williams, Wilson, Shiver, Warren and Carrier, and Misses Hutchinson, Lyon, Rowe, Richardson, Morse, Wilson, Smith, Miriam and Linda Payson, Gaultier, Cash, McNeil, Reeves, Anderson, and Turner. There may have been more, but these were noted in the grand stand crowd.

Library Association Elects Officers.

The annual meeting of the Palatka Library association was held March 28th, when reports of officers and committees were given and officers elected for the ensuing year. The report of the librarian showed that the attendance during the past year had been the greatest in the history of the association—5,387 visitors having been enrolled.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President, I. I. Himes; vice-presidents, Revs. L. R. Lynn, E. J. Gates, F. H. Richey; secretary, Mrs. R. F. Adams; treasurer W. S. Burdette.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED. William Shaffer, a brakeman of Denison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." Osteopathic Pebbles.
The power of our bodies to resist and recover from disease is being daily demonstrated by skillful osteopaths.

It has come to be believed that Nature is a reputable physician and will, if assisted by skillful osteopathic treatment, mend herself.

Osteopathic treatment aids Nature's processes to combat all forms of diseases and has given abundant proof of its ability to withstand the conflict and rout the enemy.

The power to get well is found in the organism of the sick person. Competent osteopaths control the throttle that regulates these vital forces and utilizes them to aid nature to effect a cure.

Osteopathy is nature's best helper.

FLORAHOME FACTS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Danbar of Elk Horn, Wis., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bull.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have been the guests of Mrs. Phillips' father, Rev. Simons.

Mr. and Mrs. Browning of Daytona visited Mr. and Mrs. Jain over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bull with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Danbar, went to Crescent City Saturday.

Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Miller, who have been the guests of their mother, Mrs. Phillips, leave this week. Mrs. Webster goes to Chicago and Mrs. Miller to St. Louis.

On Friday evening last a reception was held at the home of Rev. Mr. Simons in honor of Miss Stocking who left on Thursday for her home in Nebraska. Miss Stocking will be greatly missed, having been a most faithful worker in church circles. To her great credit is due the fine library started here.

A number of ladies spent the afternoon with Mrs. McIntyre who has been the guest of her son, R. S. McIntyre. Mrs. McIntyre left on Tuesday for her home in Kansas.

Frank Rainford is home from Palatka where he has been working.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre and Mr. McIntyre's mother spent Friday in Interlachen.

Miss Ethel Wilcox left Thursday for New York city, from whence she goes to Spokane, Wash. She was accompanied as far as Palatka by her mother.

WELAKA.

On Monday a merry party took a trip up the Ocklawaha as far as Bear Creek where they caught plenty of bass for the dinner and had some to give to friends. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Gaffney, Capt. D. C. Packard and son, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Brown and Mr. Williams.

Miss Vesta McCombs left last week for her home in Harvardsville, Ind. It was her first visit to Florida and she is so well pleased she promises to return as soon as possible.

Rev. G. H. Ward will hold services in the Episcopal church next Sunday, April 2d.

Services in the M. E. church last Sunday were very interesting and well attended.

Mr. Clark's house looks fresh and clean in its coat of new paint. More of this kind of improvement would make our village a more cheerful place to live in.

Mr. Clark was the lucky winner of the Postal shot gun, sold by chance on Monday night.

Mrs. Higgins and daughters of New York left the Gates house Friday. All were benefited by their stay in Florida and are missed by all their friends.

Capt. Swift was so much improved by his stay in Florida that he has gone on duty again. This time on the "Fish Hawk."

Hair and Intellect.

"Did you ever notice," asked an observant woman, "how many intellectual people have Auburn hair? At the theater the other night I don't remember noticing a single reddish head of hair among the hundreds of unweaved heads spread out before me. They were the well coiffed heads of the average nice woman. The next night I attended a meeting of a very learned society at which there were perhaps 200 or 300 of the brainiest thinkers and educators around town, and without turning my eyes I picked out at least a dozen Auburn haired women in the few seats in front of me. Now, that was more than a coincidence. It argues something for the possessor of Auburn hair, I should think."

Curious Paradox About Hands.
It is a curious paradox that, as a rule, the large handed man loves small things, details, exquisitely finished objects, while he whose hands are small delights in colossal of every sort, loving ostentation and display, immense houses, majestic estates and all else that is upon a great scale. His handwriting is large and perhaps full of flourishes, while that of the large handed man is small and precise.

Simply a Lottery.
Dr. Phinker—Take this prescription: It will either kill or cure you. Patient—But suppose it kills me? Dr. Phinker—Nothing ventured, nothing gained. My motto is, "No cure, no pay," so I'm taking a chance as well as you.—Philadelphia Press.

In Time of Trial.
Daughter (looking up from her novel)—Papa, in time of trial what do you suppose brings the most comfort to a man? Papa—An acquittal, I should think.

The soul of man is infinite in what it covets.—Ben Jonson.

PROPER TREATMENT OF PNEUMONIA.
Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sander, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Ackerman & Stewart.
